

Off the Beaten Path

An afternoon with Roger Naylor

Roger Naylor spends his days rambling around his beloved Arizona and writing about what he finds. He specializes in state and national parks, lonely hiking trails, twisting back roads, diners with burgers sizzling on the grill, small towns, ghost towns and pie. His work has appeared in the Arizona Republic, The Guardian, USA Today, Arizona Highways, and dozens more. In 2018, he was inducted into the Arizona Tourism Hall of Fame. He is the author of several Southwest travel books and Arizona-based humorous short stories. Visit www.rogernaylor.com
